Name: Mhlongo Andrew Wisani
Student Number: 50984357
Class Group: Distance Potchefstroom
Chosen Role: Business Analyst

This symbol shows a person driven by purpose. The runner represents discipline, endurance, and constant growth. The bowl holds my goals. It shows I am always moving forward to progress in work, education, business, faith, family, and running.

Who I Am

I am a Student who loves running.
I believe in discipline, consistency, and solving problems through data and technology.

What I Care About

Work • Business • Family • Church • Running

What I Am Working Towards

Completing my IT degree, growing as a Business Analyst, building a strong business, excelling at work, and gaining the endurance to become a better long-distance runner.

Why My Logomark Looks This Way

The running figure forms my initials M AW.
Running represents discipline and continuous progress.
The bowl represents my goals and purpose.
Chasing it symbolizes my constant pursuit of growth and success.

Core Idea

Progress requires discipline, endurance, and clear goals.

A supporting infographic

The logo features a running figure running after a bowl that has something inside (which are goals to achieve), the logo shape is my initials M AW. The running man represents dedication and constant progress in my personal and professional journey. Running after the bowl means my drive to be always able to improve and work toward my goals which are inside the bowl. Overall, the design communicates motivation, growth, and the pursuit of success.

Logomark Explanation

The logomark represents movement, progress, and determination. The running figure symbolizes continuous growth and problem-solving in technology. The object that the runner is running after represents goals, innovation, and solutions that drive my work in Business Analyst

The simple shapes create a clean and modern visual identity, showing efficiency and clarity most important qualities in Business Analyst.

The design uses minimal elements to communicate focus, speed, and forward thinking.

- ➔ What was hardest to decide? :
  What Can I include in my logo since I am a person of more personalities.

- ➔ What did you remove? :
  Not including the other personality.

- ➔ What does this design say about you?:
  This symbol shows a person driven by purpose. The runner represents discipline, endurance, and constant growth. The bowl holds my goals. It shows I am always moving forward—toward progress in work, education, business, faith, family, and running.

GitHub Profile and Repository link

https://github.com/andrewmaendu/CMPG214-/tree/main